

Tessa Jowell Health Centre

The new health centre will improve access to GP and community care by delivering a range of health and wellbeing services all under one roof.

Services will be moving to the new health centre during April and May 2020. Check whether your service will be located there before attending.

Services at Tessa Jowell Health Centre

GP services including:

Tessa Jowell GP Surgery

(formerly Melbourne Grove and Hambleton Medical Practices);

Extended Primary Care Service

(8am-8pm every day of the year);

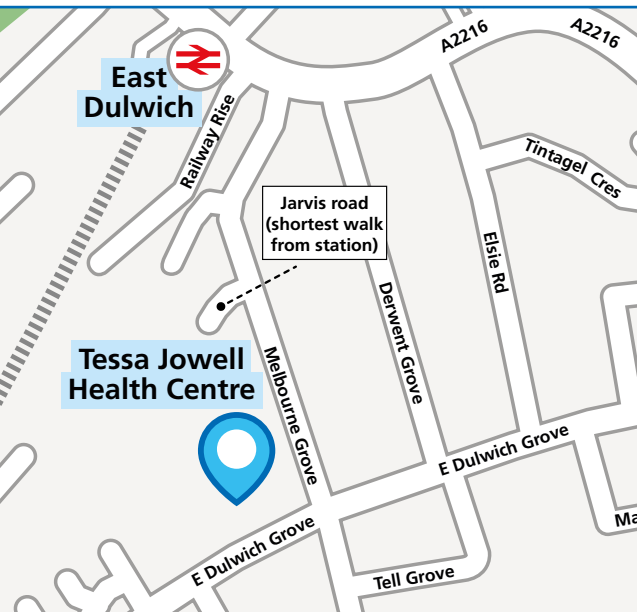

Out-of-hours GP service

(6.30pm-8.00am, Mon to Thurs;
8.00pm Fri to 8.00am Mon; all day
on bank holiday Mondays).

- Adult and children's community services
- Pharmacy
- Renal Dialysis Unit
- Consultant outpatient clinics
- Phlebotomy (blood tests)
- Cardiology and respiratory diagnostics
- Mental health services
- Community activities and events

Service providers in the health centre include Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust, King's College Hospital NHS Foundation Trust, South London and Maudsley NHS Foundation Trust and Omnes Healthcare, supported by other specialist, voluntary and community organisations.

How to find the Tessa Jowell Health Centre

Address: Tessa Jowell Health Centre, 72H East Dulwich Grove, London SE22 8EY
The centre is situated on the corner of Melbourne Grove and East Dulwich Grove.

Public transport links:

- East Dulwich Station is a few minutes' walk from the Jarvis Road entrance
- Buses stopping at East Dulwich Station: 176, 40, 185, 484, P13
- Bus numbers 37 and 42 stop on East Dulwich Grove near to the health centre